

Buy Where You Get the Best Values for the Money

Do yourself the justice of making a thorough comparison of the qualities and prices of any articles you may desire before making your purchase. Poorly made merchandise is never "cheap" at any price. It is an easy matter to compare our prices with those you may find elsewhere. Every article is marked in plain figures, and the price represents the lowest possible figures at which that article can be sold. Small profits, and many sales, is our motto.

If you have not had an account with us you are not able to realize its convenience. An open account with us affords you the opportunity of buying anything you may desire; having it charged, and paying for it as best suits your own convenience. Your promise to pay is all we ask; and there are no notes and no interest charges whatever.
